

SUNSHINE COAST

On the Ridge Cooking School

The Sunshine Coast is set to continue to build on its reputation as a foodie's heaven, with the launch of On the Ridge Cooking School. Owner operator Tonya Jennings has combined her passion for food and cooking.

The focus is on local seasonal products sourced from a food trail within a 80km radius of the school – whether it's fish and seafood from Mooloolaba wharf, or macadamia nuts and avocados from a farm at Kureelpa Falls Road, the ingredients are the best.

Classes take place throughout the year on Saturdays and Sundays, and usually follow a theme. Upcoming classes include "Italianicious – Cooking with Passion" (10 May) and "Mediterranean – Touch of Spice" (8 June).

It costs AUD145 (SGD181.90) per person, including lunch and wine. Saturdays and Sundays from 9.30am to 3pm. www.ontheridge.com.au

